

ΙΝΣΤΙΤΟΥΤΟ ΕΠΙΜΟΡΦΩΣΗΣ

PREMIER MINISTRE

TRAINING SEMINAR EKDDA - ENA

" Inter-ministerial coordination of national policies "

EKDDA - Athens - Greece

Monday 7th to Thursday 10th, April 2014

Trainers :

M. N - Monday 7th and Tuesday 8th, April

« Maître des requêtes », State Council

Former Special Adviser to the General Secretariat of the Government

Former head office of the Ministry of Economy, Finance and Industry

M. N- Wednesday 9th and Thursday 10th, April

Deputy Commissioner in charge of coordination and interdepartmental action

Delegation for Territorial Development and Regional Strategic Planning

(DATAR)

Monday 7th, April 2014
Mr. Charles TOUBOUL

PART 1

INTERMINISTERIAL COORDINATION OF PUBLIC POLICIES

08:30 – 10:15

I. Introduction to the French political and administrative system

- Historical introduction and presentation of the regime of the Fifth Republic
- Central government ministries, departments and cabinet
- The key issue of the distribution of powers between departments and services

10: 15 – 13:00

II. Stakeholders of the interministerial coordination

- The constitutional role of the Prime Minister
- General Secretariat of the Government
- The Prime Minister Office
- Other actors: Office of the President of the Republic, cabinet ministers.

13:00-13:30 Break

13:30–16:00

III. Arbitration procedures in situation of interministerial disagreements

Objective: To learn how to adapt procedures for resolving disagreements according to the situation.

- Prior bilateral discussions between departments
- Mechanisms of informal arbitration
- The formal arbitration mechanism: the "ministerial meeting" (RIM)
- The solemn arbitration mechanism: the meeting of ministers

Tuesday 8th, April 2014

08:30 – 11 :00

IV. Coordination procedures without interministerial disagreements

- Control of the communication and public statements
- Control of Relations with Parliament
- Control of projects of normative texts
- Legal control and advice

11 :00 - 13:00

V. Specific mechanisms of interministerial coordination

- Sectoral coordinations
- Coordination in time of crisis
- Coordination of European Affairs

13:00-13:30 Break

13:30 - 16:00

General discussion. Evaluation of the participants : written Test (MCQ), presentation of results, questions and answers.

Wednesday 9th, April 2014

PART 2

THE CASE OF THE PUBLIC POLICY OF SPATIAL PLANNING

08:30 – 11:00

I. General framework : The administrative organization of the French State and local authorities, and presentation of DATAR

A) The administrative organization of the French State and local authorities

- The State : central administration and decentralized administration
- The different levels of local authorities and their respective powers.

B) Presentation of the Delegation for Territorial Development and Regional Strategic Planning (DATAR)

11:00 – 13:00

II) The role of Datar in the interdepartmental process : case studies

1) Contracts between the State and the Regions

- The corollary of decentralization : The national plan, State priorities, stakeholders
- The method of the projects contracts for 2007-2013 : double monitoring, the role of Datar, the role of the Prefect of Region, method and schedule
- Assets and limits : results, the State-Region dialogue, the declination of the plan, the contractual approach, national programming, the various ministerial strategies

- Lessons for 2014-2020 : the limit of the thematical approaches, strategies, objectives

13:00-13:30 Break

13.30-16.00

2) Rural Centres of excellence ("PER"):

- The origin of the rural centers of excellence : CIADT September 3rd, 2003 ; Prospective Study of Datar: "What rural France in 2020?" ; observation ; national system
- Presentation of the system set up and managed by DATAR : issues, eligibility and selection criteria, organization and monitoring of PER, modalities of national examination, funding
- Comparison of two generations : 2006-2010 and 2010-2015
- Assessment and monitoring of PER: findings
- Examples of PER ("patching the chain of volcanic stone" ; "Partnering with the School of Architecture in Volvic" ; "Establishment of an environmental center - wood industry")

Thursday 10th April, 2014

8.30 - 13.00

3) The DATAR observatory of territories

- The Observatory: a special status (creation by decree in 2004 and 2011, the Policy Board)
- Presentation of the Observatory team : objectives and tasks, network of partners and its organization
- The workfields of the Observatory in 2012-2013
- Presentation of the Report of the Observatory and presentation of the website

4) The accessibility of public services

- Elements of context - Focus on rural areas, CIADT May 11, 2010, CIPAC of 18 December 2012
- Presentation of the interdepartmental approach on accessibility : operation and objectives of the procedure monitored by DATAR
- Experimentation and "services to the public" : origin, project presentation, balance sheet

13:00-13:30 Break

13.30 - 16.00

5) Clusters

- Genesis of poles : Lisbon agenda, new conception of spatial planning, economic theories and stages of the policy)
- Presentation of business : definition, objectives, method, operation, certification, financing
- The selection process : decisions CIADT, the call for proposals, the screening at the regional level, the selection at the national level
- Evaluations of the 3 phases : 2008, 2012 and 2013